

JAMEY NORBY OPENS DINGMAN COMPANY BRANCH OFFICE IN COLORADO SPRINGS

Effective February 1st, Jamey Nordby, a successful entrepreneur and executive coach, has been named Vice President by The Dingman Company, and will do executive search serving primarily business clients nationwide from a Colorado location.

Nordby, his wife Annie and their five sons are long time residents of Colorado Springs.

“We believe Jamey’s business experience, discernment and professionalism will increase our ability to serve the best interests of our clients,” said Bruce Dingman.

Nordby brings a broad business background including product management in a multinational technology corporation, a mid-sized international software corporation, well over a decade as founder and president of a financial services company and five years as an executive coach. Nordby’s understanding of how organizations best function combined with his ability to discern the motivation, abilities and personality of an executive will ensure the best possible marriage of executive with opportunity.

Nordby has a Bachelor of Science in Computer Science with Minors in Math and Physics from the University of Denver and has taken additional course work in accounting, operations and management statistics. Jamey has also served in his community as a United States Swimming Official, member of non-profit boards, and a Boy Scouts of America Troop Chairman. Jamey camps, skis, backpacks, and is the lead elder in his church.

© The Dingman Company 2009

Our Mission: To make a positive difference in the lives of organizations and people.